THE PORT OF LUDINGTON MARITIME MUSEUM BOARD
OF DIRECTORS ARE NOT LIABLE FOR THE CONTENT OF THIS MAILER OR THE EVENT ADVERTISED.

In 1679, the ship Le Griffon left its mooring at Washington Island bound for the Straits of Mackinac, never to be seen or heard from again. Until now...

Join Us This Monday, September 23rd, for an Event of a Lifetime! The Port of Ludington Maritime Museum Presents the Unveiling of its Latest Exhibit: 'The Ludington Gargoyle'

Head of the Ludington Maritime Society and Chairman of the Board of Trustees to the Port of Ludington Maritime Museum, Bartholomew Marvins, will be in attendance along with all current (and future?) Board Members.

EVENT TIMES

- 6:00 PM — Join us at the Port of Ludington Maritime Museum for a reception of light snacks, champagne, and a cash bar.
- 7:00 PM — A huge reveal of our latest exhibition! Rescued from the depths of Lake Michigan, this exhibition is sure to astound all guests.
- 8:00 PM — Attendees may peruse exhibits at their leisure. Be sure to catch our documentary in the 'Theater of the Great Lakes'!
- 9:00 PM — Please enjoy your evening as you vacate the premises.
